CITILITES RESTAURANT AND BAR ANNOUNCES NEW SPRING MENU, SHOWCASES PHOTO EXHIBIT

(Dayton, OH) – March 17, 2008 – Citilites Restaurant and Bar, located in the Wintergarden of the Schuster Center, has announced a new lunch menu for the spring, and will display a photo exhibit along its walls throughout March.

Citilites is open for lunch, Monday – Friday, 11 a.m. – 2 p.m., and for dinner beginning two hours before showtime on Schuster Center performance nights.

Throughout the month of March, the photo exhibit “Building of a Dream: Celebrating Five Years” will be displayed on the walls of Citilites. The exhibit, which features the photography of Andy Snow, traces the construction of the Schuster Center and is on display as part of the celebrations for the fifth anniversary of the opening of the Schuster Center.

The new lunch menu includes the signature house-made tomato bisque, and Wintergarden, Caesar and house salads for starters. New sandwiches include grilled chicken, vegetarian wrap and Italian Panini, and the citi club will remain as a favorite on the menu.

House specialties include the Citilites classic of tomato bisque with grilled triple cheese sandwich, steak burger, citi-style fish & chips, and the addition of pasta primavera.

There are also new daily specials:

- Monday: bang bang chicken
- Tuesday: tuna melt
- Wednesday: Philly cheesesteak
- Thursday: chicken salad croissant
- Friday: crab cake

Desserts include chocolate decadence cake, New York cheesecake, rustic apple tart, peanut butter cup cake, ice cream and sorbet, and the option of a mini-dessert tasting sampler.

A variety of domestic and imported beers, as well as wine by the glass or the bottle are available for lunch.
